Certainly the library rooms as Miss Crawford with her charming taste has arranged them, should be a temptation for literary dallying to any passerby.

Their bright furniture, fresh, gay flowers; enticing travel posters and well selected prints and water-colors form a restful, even alluring background to the well stocked shelves and magazine table where, for a minute or an hour, you may forget your woes or add to your joys by reading about those of all the world.

A glance at the life of Marie Antoinette, by Stefan Zweig, may console you for the mistake of your not having been born a queen; Men Dislike Women, by Michael Arlen, should give you a taste for lively writing but convince you of the author's deceit on selecting such a title for his story; The Lost Continent of Mu, by Major Churchward, will cause you to think of the islands of the Pacific Ocean in a startled and (it is to be hoped) respectful if bewildered fashion. And if you are very young, Louisa Alcott and a host of others will tell you of the strange lives your grandmothers led in a day when little girls worked samplers and their "shorts" reached to their toes.

The silver cup won by Circle No. 2 of the Bay St. Louis Chapter of the Junior King's Daughters, for excellence in work, is on display in the library rooms until autumn, when the various circles will again compete for the happiness of its possession.

The library Board of Managers would like to take this means of thanking the editor of The Sea Coast Echo for his contribution toward the building up of the library, the space assigned to this column and the business of printing it.—Contributed.

The King's Daughters and Sons of Bay St. Louis have launched a campaign to secure funds to build an addition to the emergency hospital operated by the circle here.

An Outstanding Candidate for The Nomination For Gov.

HUGH WHITE
Business man and industrialist, receiving rousing ovations over State.

WHITE TELLS WHAT INDUSTRY MEANS AND ITS ACCOMPLISHMENT

Agriculture Must Be Balanced With Industry—Industry and Payrolls Our Hope

Hugh White spoke at Jackson Friday night at historic Polindexter Park and the gathering, according to the Jackson press, was said to be the largest gathering yet to meet any candidate, leaders from all parts of the State attending.

The candidate revealed that during the past three years he had devoted much of his time to gaining industries for Mississippi and asserted that he did not own, nor did he contemplate owning, any stock or bonds in any industry that he had brought to the state.

It was two or three years back as the closing of the J. J. White Lumber Company neared, that Mr. White interested himself so keenly in gaining new industries. He did it so that his former employees, numbering several thousand, would have a means of livelihood following the close of the plant. Another purpose he had in mind was to have these employees remain citizens of Columbia and this they could not do unless employment was provided.

It was following the location of the first industry that Mr. White learned that his program was twofold and that he aided the farmers by providing ready cash markets for their products.

Must Balance Industry

"Agriculture must be balanced with industry as the only means of stimulating commerce and giving employment to those of our citizens who are out of work," Mr. White said. "I want to discuss with you," he continued, "the beneficial and far reaching results that have come from the establishment of a large garment factory at Columbia and at other points in the state within the past two years."

"The total payroll for the more than seven hundred employees and other money expended in the operation of the Columbia plant to February 1st of this year," Mr. White said, "amounted to over one half million dollars."

"This plant furnished work to over seven hundred people, many of the school teachers and other professionally trained persons who were unable to get employment and it also gave employment to many other persons. The stores and offices and other places of business found it necessary to increase their staffs following the coming of this new payroll."

"Several other plants of like size and capacity have been located in other points of Mississippi and these several factories furnish employment to approximately 4,000 people with an annual payroll of $2,400,000.00 or one twenty-fifth of the value of our cotton crop of 1934 at 12 cents per pound."

The speaker compared the 4,000 employees, who earned one twenty-fifth of the value of last year's cotton crop, to the tens of thousands of farmers and tenants who earned this amount.

Mr. White spoke for some minutes revealing the value of the large canning plant at Columbia and showing that the farmers of Marion and adjoining counties were now producing great quantities of perishable products that were not grown prior to the location of the canning plant.

"There was no market for these products and the farmers were right in not growing them at that time," Mr. White declared.

"There is not much progress to be made in solving the problems of the farmers by having the man on

BUSINESS GROUP HEAR W. J. GEX, JR., TELL OF RECENT TRIP WEST

Attorney, Back From West Coast, Guest-Speaker—L. & N. Guard Gate Asked For

Recounting incidents and observations of a recent trip over the West and out to the Pacific Coast, Walter J. Gex, Jr., guest-speaker of Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Tuesday night, interested quite a group of business and professional men who assembled in regular weekly meeting.

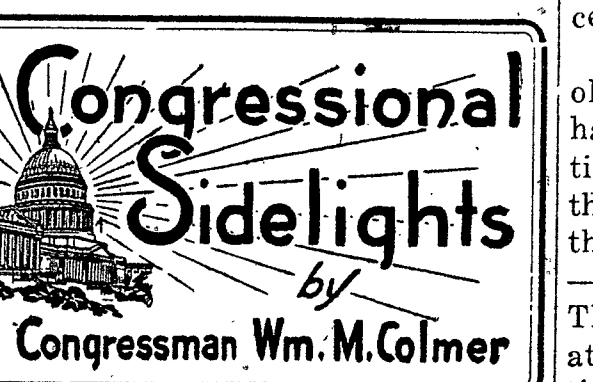

The speaker told of trip that took him over 6,700 miles, thru cities, towns, villages and open spaces as well; over high passes through the Rocky Mountains and down again over the hot sands of the desert, where the thermometer registered 120, and possibly over.

The visit to Boulder Dam, the great government irrigation project, harnessing the Colorado river, and engineering feat, of which the base of steel and concrete is 600 feet in width—size of two city blocks, was told. This accomplishment of man, harnessing the waters of centuries to come and to serve countless generations unborn, was an outstanding feature of various subjects embraced.

Mr. Gex told of the trip to Pike's Peak and vicinity, Salt Lake City, out to California, San Diego Fair and to Los Angeles and Hollywood where he was privileged to see a picture in the making featuring Bing Crosby and Joan Crawford as co-stars. Crosby was reputed to receive the highest salary of any movie actor while Harold Lloyd was the richest, he said. The talk included a visit to Agua Caliente, Mexico, below California, and Juarez in Mexico, across from El Paso. Pictures of scenes along the trip were distributed and viewed.

A verbal message from the L. & N. R. Co., was received, asking for endorsement of the company's request of the government to provide an automatic safety gate at the Rotary Club to concern itself, furthermore, it was stated, the club would be a party to causing the gatekeeper, a man of family, to lose his means of livelihood. However, a motion prevailed, asking the railway company to immediately provide for a "gate" and guard at Second street crossing since this place had recently been the scene of fatality. The resolution would be forwarded in due time.

Uncle Charlie's Nite Club is the oldest on the Coast. ### NEW TAXES ON WEALTH

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, in a message to Congress, has recommended heavy taxes to reduce large incomes and to prevent concentration of great wealth, he suggested the levying of inheritance and gift taxes on very large estates, the restriction of very large incomes, particularly those of more than one million dollars, and a graduated income tax on net corporate incomes.

For a while there was some doubt as to whether the President's recommendations should be acted on at this session or not, especially in view of the fact that the session is so far advanced and that a tentative date had already been set for adjournment. It has not been decided what action will be taken before Congress adjourns. Because of this development my prediction last week of an early adjournment will have to be revised. It will no doubt require an additional month to work out the tax program.

GOVERNMENT AID FOR THE YOUTH OF AMERICA

The sum of $50,000,000 has been set aside from the work-relief funds by the President to aid more than a half million young people between the ages of 16 and 25; stranded by the depression and unable to get a start in life. The fund will be administered by the National Youth Administration, with Miss Josephine Roche, now Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, as Chairman.

This new agency is a part of the relief set-up; its main function will be jobs for young men and women in private industry, training them for industrial, technical, and professional pursuits, and in some instances, making it possible for them to continue the street corner and sidewalk constantly advising him to diversify and not supplying a market to sell the products grown.

NOVELTY ORCHESTRA FOR UNCLE CHARLIE'S THIS SATURDAY NIGHT

The Evolution Trio's Own 8-Piece Rumba Orchestra—Fun, Frolic and Music Galore

The Al Durning Booking Corporation has scheduled an unusual attraction for Uncle Charlie's Nite Club, Bay St. Louis this Saturday night. Something entirely new, novel and entertaining from start to finish.

For this occasion The Evolution Trio's Own 8-Piece Rumba Orchestra, in an original creation of fun, frolic and music galore, will be the main orchestral attraction. Mort Silver, singing master of ceremony, will preside over the evening of pleasure. Never before, says Mr. Breath, the proprietor, has a club offered such fine orchestral entertainment as this.

Al Durning will present one of their swankiest of de luxe pleasure makers, rumba players who play for dancing, the like of which has never been dated for Bay St. Louis.

The "boys" will appear in their novelty uniforms, for this occasion. And for this occasion, it is announced by Mr. Durning, the best girl singers and dancers will appear for this date. The bass violin player, who makes his bass fiddle dance among the dancers, is a riot, it is said.

Uncle Charlie's Nite Club is the oldest on the Coast. The one that has stood the vicissitudes of time and tide of depression and prosperity; the one that has remained opened throughout the winter and summer—fifty-two weeks out of the year. The one that has come to stay. New attractions will feature the club's activities in future. Orchestras that play dance music for people who dance.

The fact that the navy department may seek authorization for a dreadnaught in 1936 and 1937 indicates continued reliance upon the battleship despite all the talk to the contrary.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

Another project that is being undertaken under the work-relief program is that of rural electrification. A survey of the Mississippi valley reveals that only ten per cent of the farms are electrified. While no figures are available at the moment, the percentage of farms in Mississippi having electricity would not be much lower than this. It is the purpose of the Rural Electrification Administration to work thru private companies wherever possible.

Ice Cream Establishment Entered and Quantity Of Products Missing

Some unknown party or parties on Thursday night of last week gained entrance into the ice cream retail establishment of the Peerless Company, corner Beach Boulevard and Carroll avenue and carried away quite a quantity of the company's products.

The manager reported the theft Friday morning and after a check up made to Chief of Police Wm. Hobbs it was discovered that 15 pints of vanilla cream, 3 gallons of pineapple ice cream, 5 dozen cherries and 3 gallons lemon custard had been taken.

No portion of the building showed evidence where entrance had been gained by breaking, either a window had been lifted or a door afforded entrance in some undetermined manner.

A night or two previously the cafe and soft drink establishment on the beach had been entered and a quantity of bottled goods and approximately Mr. Staehle reported, six cartons of cigarettes had apparently been taken. Entrance in this instance was affected by coming up a step leading from the beach, lifting a window and opening a door adjoining by passing the hand through.

HUGH WHITE RALLY AT BILOXI

HUGH White, candidate for governor, announces he will close his campaign at Biloxi on the night of Monday, August 5, eve of the primary election. This rally, we have every reason to believe, will be only second to that of last Friday night at Jackson which proved the biggest and most enthusiastic of any held, when special trains from various points of the State were operated that evening and night in and out of the Capital city.

It will be remembered last election, when Mr. White was a candidate and failed of nomination by a small margin over the State, he carried Biloxi, the Coast's largest city, overwhelmingly, receiving a decisive vote that registered his popularity in a substantial way.

Biloxi and vicinity will again give him a preponderant vote and it seems fitting and a compliment to the Coast that Mr. White should choose this section of the State to stage the final scenes of his campaign for the first primary.

Like some of the other candidates, he has conducted his campaign on a high plane, free from criticism. Clean and openly. That he will be in the second primary is admitted on all sides. Few, if any, doubt this. If elected, he will give Mississippi a splendid business administration, the kind that will answer the cry from all parts. We must have a leader who will put the state on a sound business basis. A man who will industrialize Mississippi, combined with agricultural resources in order that our people who are more than willing may be put to work and receive adequate pay for their labors. Mississippians are self-respecting. They do not wish the dole. They scorn charity from the public treasury. They want nothing free. They wish to work honestly and pay for what they get. Men and women of high type, intelligent and normal-minded they ask for nothing but of those things that may be had in all fairness and honesty, and always willing to give value received for what they get.

You'll have to admit, brother, that the new swim suits, with girls inside, make swimming attractive.

FOR A PUBLIC PIER

BAY St. Louis and Waveland, in fact, this entire immediate section, has repeatedly felt the need of a recreation pier. The lack has proven a drawback to this section as a place of recreation and popular resort and our own people, the thousands who live locally, have time and again felt the need of a place where one may go in quest of such recreation and pleasure a public pier affords.

Our city administration has long realized this improvement would not only prove an acquisition but a necessity and the matter has received considerable attention and consideration as well. It is planned we may be able to get federal aid on the subject but since procuring public money requires 'time and patience,' it seems like something in the far-off distance.

The Echo is glad to see a number of our public spirited citizens have banded themselves together formed a chartered organization, and are going to give this locality such a pier as will combine all necessary buildings essential to meet the popular demand. Such project, when accomplished, will serve as a contribution of value to this locality.

This enterprise shows commendable public spirit and the hope is expressed that its realization will be at an early date. Our friends who have entered into this are not putting up their money from any mercenary motive. They are imbued with civic pride and responsibility and in turn entitled to any reward that might come their way.

OUR COAST AND ITS FUTURE

THE Echo shares the opinion of many who are firm in the belief that the Mississippi Gulf Coast is not only destined to a great future at no distant date, but the return of better times and more substantial values is at hand.

The country is going through a process of adjustment. This section and its people are no different from any other. To one who has traveled a little, visited times again various places from Coast to Coast and from the Canadian to the Mexican borders, mingled with the people and remained long enough in places to get a slant on things,—after all that is said and done, one returns to this section more imbued with it and its desirability to live here than ever. One seemingly goes away to return home and by contrast, as if were, to find what a favored country we possess. One's sense of realization and subsequent appreciation is quick to set in and one can well remain content in the satisfaction that follows.

However, we are woefully lacking in one essential and that is the inadequacy of livelihood. It is hoped, in time, our section may be able to offer more employment than in the past. We hope for the growth and expansion of Mississippi's seaport at Gulfport and that from the hum of industry, which follows the establishment of factories at various points along the coast, we may realize such dreams that are not ephemeral but lasting and beneficial.

A vacation a summer beats an apple a day.

SHALL WE DESTROY THE WEALTH?

THE recent proposals to create new and more stringent federal taxes, based on the demagogic demand of "share-the-wealth," have met with virtually unanimous denunciation from newspapers, from industrial leaders, and from the best economic commentators.

As many unbiased experts have pointed out, "share-the-wealth" would really "destroy-the-wealth." It is all very well to talk about soaking the rich, and about breaking up accumulated capital, but when you do that you break up industry, you destroy jobs, you artificially dry up the springs of productive enterprise, you stop progress—and in the long run, the person who gets soaked hardest is the man looking for a job.

These new proposals are not primarily destined to raise revenue—drastic and confiscatory as they are, they would produce but a minute fraction of the money that is being spent today for federal activities. The rich are too few and far between, and the great estates that would be taxed almost into non-existence are rarer yet. The proposals come under the head of "reform"—any they are put forward at a time when other unprecedented "reforms" are the greatest obstacles in the way of recovery. We need to stimulate capital, not to frighten it; we need to give the investor the confidence that will make him put his money to work, not make him give up in despair because of policies that would destroy the accumulations and labors of generations.

Fair, equitable and reasonable taxation is essential to economic and social stability; inequitable, unfair and confiscatory taxation can create only havoc—at the expense of every worker, every home-owner, every citizen.

"Soak the rich" is popular with people who do not know how to think. It sounds like robbery and is nothing less than confiscation. Every man's job depends on those who are in a position to command money, to make it. Our own people, whether they work in the canneries, the Louisville & Nashville R. R. and any and all other industry and business pursuit we might have in our own city and county, will, in the last analysis, be hit by that dangerous slogan, "Soak the rich."

SENATOR BILBO RETURNS HOME

MISSISSIPPI'S junior senator, Theodore G. Bilbo, packed his grip, closed his office and returned to his home at Poplarville one day this week and gives notice he is there to stay for the balance of the session. However, he has paired his vote and no administration bill or measure will suffer by his absence. Washington is an inferno during the mid-summer and Congress seemingly is doing little or nothing. Senator Bilbo, apparently, cannot tolerate the torridity of the Capital at this time of the year and he must realize how little Congress is accomplishing.

It is possible he feels he can accomplish equally as much at home and not flit away his personal time. Senator Bilbo has declared his favor for the Hon. Hugh White, candidate for Mississippi gubernatorial honors, he is openly an avowed supporter of the industrialist from Columbia and there is every indication to believe he will roll up his sleeves and in his own and unmistakable fashion work for the success of his choice for governor.

Senator Bilbo, in a public statement has been charged with attempting to be a dictator to the wishes of the people of Mississippi. We do not think this charge could stick. He has the right, just like any other citizen, to proclaim his choice, to work in behalf of his predilection, honestly, believing, as he does, that Hugh White is the best man for Mississippi at this particular time when we are crying for payrolls for our people, rather than for a thousand and one free things and exemption from taxes without limit, rhyme or reason.

Police recently arrested a man for killing a little girl in another city and he is charged with five other similar attacks. The moral is seen when we tell you that he was once in an asylum for the criminally insane and twice in prison.

DEPLORABLE INCIDENT AT NEW ORLEANS

THE shooting of a young man from away visiting New Orleans, while in the vicinity of the public docks one night last week by a patrolman seems unjustified and the public must necessarily bitterly resent the occurrence. It appears the young man, from representative parents, residing in Nashville, was planning to soon embark on one of the ships destined to South American ports and had gone on the docks with spirit of fascination that lures one to where ships are moored. The patrolman, according to press reports, shot him twice in back and his condition at the hospital is precarious. His father, an attorney of standing, flew to New Orleans and is with his son and plans investigation as soon as the condition of his son is determined. There are two sides to every story, we admit, but surely there seems little or no justification for an officer of the law to shoot one unarmed and in the back at that.

The town that takes care of the boys and girls in its midst can depend on them to take care of the town in after years.

RECOGNITION

ORDINARY human beings recognize their acquaintances and friends, as a rule, by mental comparisons of the faces seen. The particular face is the index to the particular personality it represents. There are other ways, however, to recognize individuals.

The blind Senator from Minnesota, Thomas B. Schall, depends upon the hands and voices. "The feel of a man's hand bespeaks the character of his face," says the Senator, "and the voice is an instrument of the soul. It doesn't lie." And, almost everyone can recognize the identity of a friend when they see the absent one's handwriting on an envelope.

Advertisers know that their message is worth more when printed in a good newspaper.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

THE LOW DOWN ON THE HIGHER UPS.

(Fred Sullens in Jackson News)
SENATOR Schall, blind Republican from Minnesota, one of the meanest men in the Senate, referred to President Roosevelt as a "megalomaniac" and was promptly and properly rebuked by Democratic leaders after his remarks had been stricken from the record. Investigation showed that Schall didn't know the meaning of the word. There are lots of members of Congress who have no idea of the meaning of the words they use—just talking in order to get their names in print.

A well-known Mississippian who evidently woke up with a large wad of disgust on his chest was heard to say this about the candidates for Governor, "Aw, they are all peanut politicians!" Mebbe so, mebbe so. But there is a very great difference between a peanut that is sound and wholesome and a peanut that is full of worms.

Candidates for Governor are promising that, if elected, they will reappoint Alf Stone as chairman of the State Tax Commission. That's very easy to promise. Alf Stone's term does not expire until June, 1938.

A MAN WITH A PLAN

(Jackson News)
IT IS useless for any candidate to tell the people how he plans to spend money "and it won't cost the taxpayers a cent."

The taxpayers don't nibble at that cheap sucker bait. They snicker every time they hear such an absurd promise.

What the people of Mississippi want to know is what the next Governor intends to do for promotion of the material welfare.

Thus far Hugh White is the only candidate who has offered a constructive plan.

His proposal to establish a balance between agriculture and industry is eminently practical. It means putting our people on their feet again.

Hysterical shouting about free text books, free auto tags, lowered homestead exemptions, etc., are empty and meaningless.

The man with a plan is the man who ought to be the next governor of Mississippi.

requests for WPA allotments, and the people will have to hurry if they expect any new spending money from the Federal treasury. The small state of Maryland filed forty applications in one day for projects involving nearly $8,000,000.

Lt-Governor Dennis Murphree

HOW many know that a change of about five thousand votes four years ago would have elected Dennis Murphree, Governor, over Bilbo. How many know that he carried seven (7) out of the eight (8) Congressional Districts in that race. Does this not show his strength? Don't you think he is deserving of promotion? Vote for him and be happy.

MURPHREE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

TO THE VOTERS

Jackson, Mississippi, July 15, 1935.

MISSISSIPPI DEMOCRATS:

During my term as State Tax Collector, I have collected One Million, Forty-Three Thousand, and Fifty-Four Dollars ($1,043,054.00) for the State, Counties, Municipalities, and Taxing Districts and every dollar of it has been faithfully accounted for. This money would have been lost to the taxpayers, but for my faithful and diligent efforts.

In the discharge of the duties of the office I have always been fair, just and considerate to all who have had business with the office. I ask for election to a second term, which is the customary endorsement usually accorded by the Democratic Party to a faithful public servant.

I am toting my own skillet and leaving the skillets of candidates for other offices alone.

Faithfully,
J. B. GULLY,
State Tax Collector.

WARREN CARVER VISITS HOME

Warren Carver, Hancock deputy clerk of courts, who is employed at the Capitol in Jackson, came down for several days during the past week-end and attended the rally at Sellers Saturday, where he spoke in the interest of the candidacy of Carl N. Craig, candidate for State Auditor and who seems to be the leading candidate here. Mr. Carver is one of the splendid and representative young men of this section who is "making good" and his visits home are always a source of pleasure and general satisfaction.

Hugh White To Close Campaign In Biloxi With Rally August 5

Hugh White, candidate for governor, will close his campaign in Biloxi, August 5. The request was made to the Biloxi city commissioners by the White headquarters at Jackson for a rally in Biloxi on the night of August 5. Local White supporters are planning a mammoth political gathering at this time. Mr. White, it will be remembered, carried Biloxi overwhelmingly in the last elections.

"GOIN' TO TOWN" WITH MAE WEST IS SOCIAL COMEDY

In New Paramount Film—
At Local Theater This Sunday and Monday

In her new starring Paramount film, "Goin' To Town," which comes to the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday, Mae West undergoes the strange and eventful transition from a bronco-busing cowgirl to the sweetheart of society in Southampton, without losing her poise or her wisecracking ability.

Mae West's adventures in "Goin' To Town," which presents her in modern clothes and up-to-date settings, start way back in the cattle country when she inherits the money of a cattle baron, and decides to go after a handsome young Englishman on whom she had an eye for some time. The pursuit of the Englishman, Paul Cavanagh, leads her to Buenos Aires where the exciting and humorous horse-racing sequences take place. Then they go back to the States and Southampton, the stronghold of society.

Mae West marries a handsome young society man to attain position. But the efforts of fortune hunters and the jealousy of her rivals make things hot for her until Cavanagh returns to the scene to tell her that he had loved her all the time.

In addition to Cavanagh, Ivan Lebedeff, Tito Coral, Monroe Owsley and Marjorie Gatenon appear in the supporting cast of "Goin' to Town."

Government receipts for the first ten months of this fiscal year were $612,186,571 more than those of the corresponding period for last year. This is a gain of 22 per cent. Expenditures rose only $98,422,410, or 1.5 per cent.

INTERESTING DATA REGARDING ETHIOPIA AND ITALY STATUS

Sizes and Population of both Compared With U. S.
Territory and Population

The following interesting data prepared for readers of The Sea Coast Echo will be found both interesting and of value to students, both young and adult:

One of the incidental results of war, threatened or existing, is that attention is directed to geography and history, although the information thus acquired is not worth the price paid for it. Be that as it may, the ambitions of Italy regarding Africa have sent us scurrying to our books. Ethiopia has approximately the combined area of the states of Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa. If those states were uninhabited and if everyone in Pennsylvania migrated thither, the population of Ethiopia would be represented with reasonable accuracy, both numerically and as to density. Italy, excluding colonial possessions, has about as much ground as Illinois and Iowa, with a population almost five times that of Pennsylvania. Relative figures as to war strength would simply be tiresome. The sporting fraternity probably will give Italy the odds that would have been accorded John L. Sullivan, if a boxing match between him and Paderewski the pianist, could have been arranged.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramps, and I would have a hard time getting my menses. I would just drag around so sluggish and 'dopey'. My mother decided to give me Cardui. I took it and that third, stomach feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too much. It really does help you."

EDWARD KALINSKI DIES SUDDENLY THURSDAY AFTERNOON, CHICAGO

Was Brother of Mrs. Lillie K. Leonhard—Valued Citizen and Man of Ability

A message to the Echo announces the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Edward Kalinski, brother of Mrs. Lillie K. Leonhard, of Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, who, according to report dropped dead in Chicago last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Kalinski was no stranger in Bay St. Louis. In fact, he had a wide acquaintance here and a number of personal friends. For twenty-five years he was in the employ of the Board of Education in Chicago, engineer and executive superintendent of one of the larger Chicago city schools with a corps of workers under him. His office was in the same building and from there the responsibilities that fell to his position.

He was a native of New Orleans and when a young man resided in Bay St. Louis with his widowed mother, a brother, Albert, connected for years as conductor local for the Louisville & Nashville R. R. and one sister, Mrs. Lillie K. Leonhard.

He is survived by his sister, his widow and two daughters. He was a man of education, well read and traveled; a man of keen perception and of a master mind, a genius in mechanics. He was a Mason of high order and standing and affiliated with a number of civic and social clubs in Chicago.

At the time of this writing no details of his passing away otherwise than it was sudden are available. The funeral, however, took place in Chicago the following day. Mrs. Leonhard being ill was unable to make the trip.

The passing away of Mr. Kalinski is cause for general regret. He was a splendid citizen, a splendid type of man and a friend and acquaintance of engaging personality and sterling qualities.

Percy—Are you economizing on the luxuries, old chap?
Algy—No; only on the necessities—gasoline and golf balls.

PRECEDENCE
The social precedence of a past president's widow has been established. She sits above cabinet members and their wives, or at least this is the order recently followed at the White House state dinner when Mrs. Woodrow Wilson preceded Mrs. Hull and the Secretary of State, the ranking cabinet member.

CAESAR'S MEAT
(For The Echo)
Back in fifteen hundred and something—
Old William Shakespeare wrote
A very wise and pithy line
Please listen, while I quote.

"Upon what meat doth Caesar feed
That he hath grown so great?"
For Caesar was a "Dictator"
And ruled the Roman state.

Down in New Orleans they say
"Pot Licker," made Huey get that way."

And now my friends again I quote
Another line that, "Willie," wrote.
"He would not be a wolf, but he Sees the Romans are sheep." Get me?

And-er-getting back to New Orleans
It's sheep dictators eat.

These big, bad wolves, in nice sheep skins
With hearts as black as home-made sins
Will promise the earth to nice, fat, sheep
But remember—its sheep dictators eat.

And listen to Shakespeare—New Orleans.
"This man he doeth bestride the narrow world
Like some Colossus! and we petty men
Walk under his huge legs—and peep about,
To find ourselves dishonored graves."

And-ah-down in New Orleans, they say
"That Huey's idea is to get that way."

But listen to W. M. Shakespeare's broadcast,
And plan the future by the past.

"Feathers plucked from Caesar's wings will make him fly
An ordinary pitch." Now tell me why.
Don't you good folks down in New Orleans
Start picking feathers?

Dictators come and dictators go,
Some folks follow—sheep will, you know
"Till at last some wise and wiley old ram
Sees the wolf neath the sheep's skin—then bam."

"Sic! sepi- tyrannus!" The old ram will shout
And give the dictator a hell of a clout.
"So perish all tyrants!" he loudly will cry
And ram the "bad wolf" right in the eye.

"And listen you fellows in New Orleans
There's mutton cooked up with the turnip greens.
And if you're fool enough to be one of the sheep
Remember—it's sheep—that the dictators eat."

—J. C.

Spornio and sister, Miss Eugenia Spornio. The Judge said the trip down thru Mississippi was interesting and he enjoyed visiting the State but, like all others who travel, he said the roads and highways were in deplorable condition.

—State candidates are unusually busy in this section of Mississippi this week, judging from the number of representative and advance men who are visiting, distributing literature and tacking signs cards, on—thanks to the Bell Telephone and Mississippi Power Companies for advertising space. The photo reproduction pictures are quite attractive, no doubt showing the respective candidates at their best and possibly taken by the cameraman of the campaign. In every instance each man is seeking a living, in addition to wishing to serve their beloved State, and it is noted each and every representative is given cordial reception—as it should be. The candidate has an arduous time, his campaign over so large a territory is no easy task and the cost is appreciable.

WAVELAND HAS USUALLY
LARGE QUOTA OF SUMMER
RESIDENT-VISITORS.

Due to its close proximity to New Orleans and its location where "morning sun and evening shade" is a factor of comfort and added pleasure, and also due to the open space of wide and unobstructed view of distant waters of the Gulf, from whence cooling breezes are wafted hither, Waveland and adjacent territory claim wide attention from the forces of summer residents who reside there for the season and others who periodically visit. This season Waveland has its usual quota of visitors. Every family more or less has guests and it would be difficult to estimate, in numbers, how many are at present enjoying the unparalleled charm and beauty of Waveland. It is a very popular playground for New Orleans but the crowds there are not only from one particular place but from various points.

BEAUTIFUL NEW HOME
FOR WEST END OF PASS
CHRISTIAN BEACH.

Passersby on Pass Christian West End Beach Boulevard are attracted by the new home recently completed on the corner of Smith Addition boulevard and the beach. This attractive and modern-like dwelling is a veritable "thing of beauty and joy" and its owner and family moved in a few days ago. The property is that of Dennis Sheen, well-known business man of New Orleans who built this essentially for a summer home, the architect never for a moment in his planning failing to keep this motif in mind. Builder and contractor was Frank Wittman who is the builder of quite a number of the more pretentious dwellings that adorn the fashionable Pass Christian beach.

Four prizes, it is announced, will be awarded to the ladies bringing the most number of coupons from a certain brand of merchandise, these coupons in large numbers redeemable in cash by the manufacturer. This is a novel and interesting way of realizing money and said to have proven successful elsewhere. Rev. Father J. J. McCarthy, S. J., will address the gathering, this alone a feature of the afternoon's entertainment.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Giering were Misses Carrie Belle Allen and Meredith Richard and Mr. Nat Richard of Plaquemine, La., and Miss Elizabeth Bateman and E. J. Giering of Baton Rouge.

Their summer villa at Clermont Harbor will continue to be occupied for the summer by Mr. and Mrs. Maloney, son-in-law and daughter, and their son, Mr. Frank Chalons.

An interesting trio of ladies visiting Bay St. Louis together Wednesday included Mrs. Bernard Levy, contract bridge lecturer and instructor; Mrs. Nora Graham, exponent and devotee of the game, and Mrs. E. She is a high ranking master teacher for Louisiana and Mississippi of the Culbertson School.

Mrs. Marshall Ballard has been away, visiting in New York and Boston, joining her son, Marshall, who finished at Boston Tech, this season, and will come South to visit the family before sailing this fall for England where he will enter Oxford, recently awarded one of the coveted Rhodes scholarships, a mark of merit and distinction.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ellsworth Kenney returned home Monday night from a delightful vacation trip to Denver and adjacent resorts, Colorado. Gals who coo and purr and fawn Men shower with gifts that they can pawn. While gals with manner brusque and shy Their own doodads are forced to buy.

Scotch Joke No. 7,991,733

And there was the Scotchman who bought only one spur. He figured that if one side of the horse went the other was sure to follow.—Annapolis Log.

SWEET CITY BY THE SEA

Shine on sweet city by the Bay, In wind and bright wave's gleam, Sing on in melody each day, In sparkles of sunbeam.

Dance on in joyousness of day, And glamor of the night; Dream on with zephyrs at their play, Or in moon's silver light.

Toss high thy head in glitt'ring foam When Neptune's horses ride; Find peace where murmuring pine-trees roam, And echo to the tide.

Praise God with bird and wind and sun; Enchantress of the sea; Spread far thy charms so lovely spun, Queen of sweet mystery.

—RHXFORD J. LINCOLN.
